

Caxton Club ON THE MOVE to Champaign

On October 6 and 7, 2017, we are traveling to join our many friends at the University of Illinois at Urbana – Champaign.

Schedule of Events

Friday, October 6, 2017

4-6:30 pm. Rare Book and Manuscript Library. Caxton Members Special Requests. This is your opportunity to see the book you've always wanted to see at the RBML. Requests must be made no later than September 29.

6:30-8 pm. Main Library, Room 220. Join the Friends of the University of Illinois Library for an Open House and Reception. Meet the RBML's new director Lynne Thomas.

8 pm. Dinner at Timpone's, 710 S. Goodwin Ave., Urbana (walking distance from RBML and Reception, but transportation will be available for those returning to the hotel).

Saturday, October 7, 2017

9:30 am. Bus Departs from the Hilton Garden Inn.

9:45-11 am. Rare Book and Manuscript Library for a guided tour of the Gwendolyn Brooks exhibit.

11:15-1:15 pm. Krannert Art Museum, 500 E. Peabody Dr., Champaign. Guided tour by curator Maureen Warren of exhibit "Coveting Nature Art, Collecting and Natural History in Early Modern Europe." This exhibit was co-curated by Caxtonian Anna Chen. Tour followed by box lunch (menu options will be made available for those registering for this portion of the trip).

1:30-3:30 pm. Tour the High-Density Storage Facility and the Preservation and Conservation Lab. This tour will answer your questions about what needs to happen when your collection exceeds 13 million books and manuscripts, many of them priceless.

3:45 pm. Joan Friedman, private collector and fellow Caxtonian, will conclude our weekend by opening her home for a tour of her remarkable collection and a substantial catered buffet and reception. A bus will return to the hotel at 7:30.

Complete price, excluding accommodations, for all events, transportation between event venues, box lunch and dinner for Friday (including wine), and all taxes and tips is: $125 per person.
