

CAXTON CLUB GRANTS

OVER $70,000
39 AWARDS
SINCE 2002

SINCE 2002, THE CAXTON CLUB has awarded thirty-nine recipients with grants totaling over $70,000. The Club, founded in 1895 in Chicago, is devoted to the literary study and promotion of the arts pertaining to the production of books. For the 2017-18 academic year, Caxton Club grants are being offered to Midwestern graduate students with projects in the following areas: bibliography, book arts, history of the book, library studies, print culture studies, and zines. There are also grants available for a School of the Art Institute of Chicago undergraduate doing a book project and early career Rare Book School attendees. Deadlines are in early October. For more information and calls for entry go to caxtonclub.org/grants.

caxtonclub.org/grants

IMAGE CREDITS: Work by 2015-16 grant recipients
Amy Richard, Jose Resendiz, Hannah Batsel,
Mary Clare Butler, and Cathy Batliner