

CAXTON CLUB GRANTS

BOOK
ARTS, ZINES

OVER $100,000
50+ AWARDS
SINCE 2002

2021-22 GRANTS FOR GRADUATE
STUDENTS WITH A PROJECT IN BOOK ARTS

Work by 2015-20 grant recipients (clockwise from top right) Joseph Mora, María Carolina Ceballos, Jude Yaw Adboada, Jose Resendiz, Amy Childress, Sara S. Liu, and Robert Henderson.

SINCE 2002, THE CAXTON CLUB has awarded more than 50 recipients with grants totaling over $100,000. The Club, founded in 1895 in Chicago, is devoted to the literary study and promotion of the arts pertaining to the production of books. For the 2021-22 academic year, Caxton Club grants are being offered to graduate students in the Midwest with projects in the book arts.

Deadline Saturday October 30, 2021.
Contact caxtonclubgrants@gmail.com

caxtonclub.org/grants

CAXTON CLUB GRANTS 2021-22

for Graduate Students with Projects in Book Arts

The Caxton Club, founded in 1895 to support “the literary study and promotion of the arts pertaining to the production of books,” extends its call for entries for its 2021-2022 grants. Grants are awarded for expenses of up to $2500 (each) for projects in book arts to be completed during the academic year 2021-22. Grants totaling up to $6,000 will be awarded.

Eligibility: Applicants must be enrolled in a Midwestern university graduate program during the academic year 2021-22 with a project in book arts, including zines.

Applicants must submit the following:

1. One page project description
2. Detailed budget
3. Resume
4. Two letters of recommendation
5. Samples of work supporting the grant: email a link to online portfolio
AND/OR a pdf less than 5 MB
6. Samples of work supporting the grant: see below for physical work

Email 1-5 to caxtonclubgrants@gmail.com with your name in subject line.

Recommenders should use the same e-mail address; your name should appear in the subject line.

Applicants should submit either a mockup dummy of the project if available, or previous work. This work should be shipped or dropped off at the following address:

Caxton Club
Jackie Vossler
401 E Ontario #3601
Chicago, IL 60611

Deadline Saturday, October 30, 2021.

Questions? Contact caxtonclubgrants@gmail.com
For further info see <https://caxtonclub.org/grants>

